

appoint an assistant, whose duties shall be to supervise the work of said bureau and its branch offices, under the direction of the commissioner, and who shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the Commissioner of Labor and Printing, the Governor, and the Director-General of the United States Employment Service. There shall also be appointed in said bureau, by the Commissioner of Labor and Printing, such assistants and other employees as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Labor and Printing, and he shall have the power, jurisdiction, and authority:

(a) To establish and conduct free employment offices in the State where in the opinion of the commissioner such action may be deemed advisable and expedient; to in all proper ways within the limitations of this act to bring together employers seeking employees and applicants for employment seeking employers; to make known the opportunities for self-employment in the State; to devise and adopt the most efficient means to avoid unemployment; to cooperate with existing State and Federal agencies in extending vocational guidance to minors seeking employment.

(b) To establish and maintain such sections of the employment service as will best serve the public welfare.

SEC. 3. The employment bureau hereby created shall cooperate with the Federal Board for Vocational Education, division for rehabilitation of crippled soldiers and sailors, in endeavoring to secure suitable employment and fair treatment of the veterans of the world war.

SEC. 4. The employment bureau shall have jurisdiction over all matters contemplated in this act pertaining to securing employment for all minors who avail themselves of the free employment service; to so conduct its affairs that at all times it shall be in harmony with laws relating to child labor and compulsory education; to aid in inducing minors over sixteen, who cannot or do not for various reasons attend day school, to undertake promising skilled employment; to aid in influencing minors who do not come within the purview of compulsory education laws, and who do not attend day school, to avail themselves of continuation or special courses in existing night schools, vocational schools, part-time schools, trade schools, business schools, library schools, university extension courses, etc., so as to become more skilled in such occupation or vocation to which they are respectively inclined or particularly adapted; to aid in securing vocational employment on farms for town and city boys who are interested in agricultural work, and particularly town and city high school boys who include agriculture as an elective study; to cooperate with various social agencies, schools, etc., in group organization of employed minors, particularly those of foreign parentage, in order to promote the development of real, practical Americanism through a broader Salary.

Assistants and other employees.

Duty of Commissioner of Labor and Printing.

To establish free employment offices.

To bring employers and employees together.

To make known opportunities.
To devise efficient means to avoid unemployment.

To cooperate with existing authorities.

To establish and maintain employment service.

Cooperation with Federal Board for Vocational Education.

Employment for minors.

Laws relating to child labor and compulsory education.

Employment in skilled labor; promotion of special courses.

Vocational employment on farms.

Promotion of Americanism.